Sorority to Observe Beginning Day

Xi Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will observe Beginning day Aug. 30 at the home of Mrs. Edward G. Porter, co-hostess will be Miss Jean Nebeker.

This day will be celebrated by Beta Sigma Phi Chapters all over the world with a social affair and for the committee chairmen to unfold their plan for the coming year to the chapter.

Adding a note of interest, the program will be previously recorded and played to the group in the form of a radio program. Miss Jean Nebeker will open the event by introducing Miss Nell Romans, the president of the chapter. Miss Romans will read the preface of the program book to be studied this year, "Festival of Life."

Miss Roman will then introduce the committee chairmen, Miss Bea Raveling, ways and means; Miss Ruth Phelps, service; Miss Karen Karlson, social, and Mrs. Ginny Grummett, program. They will each let their plans be known for the coming year in the form of a poem given by each one.

Mrs. Doris Porter will then read a poem telling of the international contests of Beta Sigma Phi to be entered by the group on poetry, publicity and the year book. Miss Jean Nebeker then will close the program with a poem telling of their past accomplishments and spur the group onward to greater goals.

A buffet supper will be served by Mrs. Porter, assisted by Miss Nebeker. A social time will follow.

Juniors Busy Pricing, Sorting for Big Bazaar

Price it lower! Wrap it up, its ready to go!

These are the exclamations coming from the backyard of the Felando home as Torrance Juniors sort out for the big rummage sale.

The "Flea Market," which will be held next Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Civic Auditorium has the girls busy pricing and marketing items from electric frying pans to baby furniture.

"We've got everything and we don't want anything left over," says Mrs. A. F. R. Felando Jr., chairman in charge of the bazaar. Three hours of work still net the girls a garage full of unpriced rummage yesterday. "It's work, but fun," states Mrs. Felando. "Everyone likes to browse through the collection," she adds.

The Torrance Juniors, members of the CWFC, will turn the proceeds of the sale over to the YMCA for remodeling of their building.

Haggling and bargaining will be fair play during the sale, and visitors are invited to bring, along the kids. Popcorn and grab bags will be provided for the younger set with two-for-a-penny toys an added feature.

Broadway to Award Subteen With Telephone

The Broadway-Del Amo is holding an exciting contest for girls between the ages of 10 to 13. The prize is her very own telephone for one full year.

To enter the contest, which starts on Aug. 24 and continues until Sept. 11, girls can fill out entry cards in the Subteen, Children's Underwear and Corset departments.

Entrants must be members of the Broadway's Hi Charmer Club which can be joined, free of charge, by filling out a registration card in the Subteen department.

The winner of the free telephone will be notified during the week of Sept. 14. For best results phone your ad to Press classified, FA 8-2345.

Club members warn that some of the items really deserve a "come early" approach.

Music Festival Announced by Unitarian Church

The Music Committee of the Pacific Unitarian Church of Torrance will present a Festival of New Music Aug. 30 at 4 p.m. The program, under the auspices of St. Cross Episcopal Church, will take place in the church, 1818 Monterey Blvd., Hermosa Beach.

A featured soloist in the program is Stella Herman, soprano. Mrs. Herman, head of the Music Library at El Camino College, has been a featured soloist in the El Camino College music productions. In the College production of the opera "Figaro" last year, Mrs. Herman has a principal role.

Her solo selections will include songs by Samuel Barber and Richard Hageman. Both Barber and Hageman are contemporary American composers, considered especially effective in the art song form.

Trudy Troy, contralto, will join Mrs. Herman later in the program, performing a duet by Zoltan Kodaly. The duet, "Christmas Dance of the Shepherds," is accompanied by flute soloist Dorothy Bailey. Mrs. Bailey is a flutist with the Beach Cities Symphony.

The program also includes Mildred Kammeier performing contemporary organ works and the Los Cancioneros Summer Workshop in Kodaly's "Missa Brevis."

Brownies Tour Toy Factory

Brownie Troop No. 2331 under the direction of Mrs. Gary Redmond and Mrs. T. N. Foster, toured the Mattel International Toy Corp., 5432 W. 102nd St., Los Angeles.

The Brownies were especially interested in the manufacture of dolls, doll furniture and the many other interesting toys.

The following week troop members, Teri Opalinski, Cathy Taylor, Bonnie Barkey, Sandra Strapelli, Norma Foster, Karen Petersen, Susan Walgren, Leslie Hoffman, Susan Vetter, Sherry Sellers, Jo Anne Rogers, Linda Redmond, Mrs. Gary Redmond, Mrs. T. N. Foster and Mrs. R. B. Opalinski and two small sons, John and Gary, all enjoyed an outing to El Nido Park.

Following singing the usual Brownie songs on the way, they had lunch in the park, played "London Bridges" and continued with the flag ceremony and business meeting at which time they decided to study more about scouting and the Hawaiian Islands. A game of kick-ball was enjoyed by all with a score of 3 to 2.

Broadway to Present Back-to-School Show

Miss Pat di Sernia, Fashion Director of the American Girl magazine, the official Girl Scout publication, will commentate a fashion show of the newest back-to-school fashions for girls and subteens on Friday, August 28 at 7 p. m. on the Terrace Patio of the Broadway-Del Amo.

The special showing for young teenagers will feature the season's pretties styles for back to school in easy-care, easy-wear fabrics, modeled by graduates of the Broadway's Hi-Charmer charm courses.

Miss Di Sernia will also give American Girl's tips on popularity, poise and good grooming. To add to the fun there will be door prizes, Good Grooming charts for everyone, and a special surprise ending.

St Lawrence Nuptials Unite Costa, Nichols

Miss Eileen Elizabeth Costa became the bride of James Walter Nichols at ceremonies performed at the St. Lawrence Martyr Church, August 15, at 11:30 a.m. Miss Costa, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antone N. Costa of Fall River, Mass., was given in marriage by her uncle, Jerry Rego.

Her bridal gown was fashioned of chantilly lace applied on net over taffeta and styled with a mandarin collar and long pointed sleeves.

She carried a bouquet of intermingled lily of the valley and stephanotis with sprays of ivy on a dainty cascade of carnations.

The bride was served by her two married sisters as attendants with her little niece in the role of flower girl.

Mrs. Russell S. Chace, matron of honor, wore a ballet length dress of shell pink silk organza and carried a cascade bouquet of garnet rosebuds.

Bridesmaid, Mrs. Rudolph W. Carreigo, carried an identical bouquet and wore a pale aqua dress. Cynthia Chace as flower girl carried a basket of garnet rose petals and was dressed in a shell pink frock.

Jerry Ronan, the son of Mrs. Verne W. Nichols of Milwaukee, Wis., served the bridegroom as best man.

Completing the wedding party were Dr. Carl Ahee and Richard Bannehr as ushers and William Hines as ring bearer.
